

Guidelines for the Training and Development Scholarship Funds
1996

1. Scholarships are available from both the Presbytery Training and Development Committee and the Synod. (Information is available on Synod scholarships upon request.)
2. Ordinarily the scholarship will not be more than 1/3 of the cost of the event. In special cases this percentage can be modified.

Normal break down of payment for an event will be -

- 1 /3 scholarship
- 1/3 local church
- 1/3 by the person attending

3. There is a scholarship limit of $500.00 per person, per event.
4. There is a limit of one scholarship per person per year.
5. This scholarship money is available to any member of any church in the Presbytery or any clergy on the roll of Presbytery.
6. The Training and Development Committee will be the body that approves these scholarships. If the Training and Development Committee is not scheduled to meet before the deadline for the event, scholarships up to $100.00 can be approved by any two or three, the General Presbyter, the Chair of Training and Development Committee or the Chair of the Scholarship Sub-Committee.
7. No scholarships will be offered for degree programs.
8. The event must have value for the life and ministry of the congregations in our presbytery.
9. By accepting the scholarship the participant agrees to share the experience gained in some meaningful way with the rest of our presbytery (workshop leader, reporting to presbytery, participation in discussions, etc.)
10. Ordinarily scholarship funds will be sent directly to the event providers.

Revised and approved by Training and Development Committee on 5-1-96.
